The President's Message

For more than a century, year by year, this College has been greeting new students—and the alchemy of the Wake Forest Spirit soon transmutes new students into old friends.

As you enter under the 1909 Class Arch, you will see that the campus is enclosed by stone walls —not prison walls to shut you in, but friendly boundaries which enclose and define a domain which you may call "home", so that you need never for a moment think of yourself as a stranger.

We welcome you to your new home for work and play and good fellowship and the expansion of that arbiter of your destiny—your soul.

We stand on the threshold to greet you.

THURMAN KITCHIN

The Student Government

The Student Body of Wake Forest, in order to "maintain and perpetuate the high ideals for which the College has ever been justly proud and to promote the common interests and general welfare of our college community," established in 1921 a form of student government of which the two chief structures are the legislative body and the Student Council.

The Council consists of twelve representatives from the Senior, Junior, and Sophomore classes, and the President, Vice-President, and the Secretary-Treasurer of the Student Body, all of which are elected by the students. The Council governs all student conduct and is guided in its decisions by the Constitution of the Student Body. All decisions of the Council are reported to the Faculty. These bodies cooperate in adjusting problems of student discipline.

The legislative body consists of eleven men, elected in the same manner as the Council, and the President of the Senior Class, who automatically becomes chairman. The purpose of this body is to enact such laws or regulations as circumstances may demand. The Council sits with the Legislature for the purpose of either approving or rejecting the action of the Legislature.

In order for the Student Government Association to function properly, every student should realize that he is an integral part of the Student Government, and in so being, should be willing to do his part by cooperating with the other factors of student government. It is also the duty of each student to take an active part in the selection of his representatives on the Council and in the Legislature by voting honestly and conscientiously.

This form of student government, of which every student is a part, serves to promote the wholesome and democratic spirit which is characteristic of Wake Forest and to promote the welfare of the student and college community.

THE HONOR SYSTEM

Out of the traditions of the past generations of college students has developed the Honor System of student government at Wake Forest. Somewhere in the life of the College when student government was unknown there was planted the seed which was to germinate into the system we now have in operation. Through the assumption of responsibilities by students there grew up the idea of "to be expected" conduct of students, and every student was as zealous that his conduct should be what was becoming to a Wake Forest man as was the faculty. In this way student government was developed, and the Honor System with it, when student government was unknown in theory.

The Honor System simply means that every man is on his honor as a gentleman to conduct himself in a manner to be expected of a gentleman, and to report violations of this code of ethics on the part of others. It has grown up in the life of our College that men are more good than bad and given an equal opportunity, will elect the right in preference to the wrong; that self-government is necessary in an institution training for citizenship in a democratic state, and individual responsibility adds effort and interest on the part of the individual. All students are on their honor to abstain from such acts as cheating, hazing, stealing and gambling; in other words, they are on their honor to do the right thing at all times and to abstain from the wrong.

The Student Council is the organ of the student body and serves as judge in cases where there are those who violate the Honor System. It also attempts to act in any other capacity in which it may be of service to the sudent body or to any member thereof.

The whole effort of those interested in student government at Wake Forest is bent toward making this a better place to spend four years. Let us cooperate, therefore, in the movement for better student government, better student life, and a more ideal place in which to work.

Wake Forest Songs

HERE'S TO WAKE FOREST

Oh, here's to Wake Forest, a glass of the finest,
Red, ruddy Rhenish filled up to the brim!
Her sons they are many, unrivaled by any;
With hearts o'erflowing we will sing her hymn.

(Chorus

Rah, Rah, Wake Forest, Rah!
Old Alma Mater's sons we are;
We'll herald her story and die for her glory.
Old Gold and Black is ever waving high.

As Frosh we adore her, as Sophs we explore her,
And carve our names upon her ancient walls;
As Juniors patrol her, as Seniors extol her,
And weep to leave fore'er her sacred halls.

(Chorus

Though fortune forsake us and fate o'ertake us,
We'll ne'er forget our dear old college days,
And o'er memory's treasure we'll drink without measure,
And sing fore'er our Alma Mater's praise.

(Chorus

DEAR OLD WAKE FOREST

Dear old Wake Forest!
Thine is a noble name;
Thine is a glorious fame,
Constant and true.
We give thee of our praise,
Adore thine ancient days,
Sing thee our humble lays,
Mother, so dear.

Dear old Wake Forest!
Mystic thy name to cheer;
Be thou our guardian near,
Fore'er and aye.
We bow before thy shrine,
Thy brow that lays entwine,
All honor now be thine
Mother, today.

FRESHMAN ADVISORY COMMITTEE

A committee composed of three members of the Student Council and two upperclassmen will review the conduct of individual freshmen. The president of the Freshman Class shall attend the meetings of the committee, but will have no vote. The purpose of the committee is to make it easier for each member of the Freshman Class to become a worthwhile Wake Forest student. The Committee shall consider the case of any freshman who disregards any of the rules made by the Student Council for every first year man enrolled in the Freshman Class. Every freshman is hereby duly warned to abide by these following rules:

1. Freshmen shall at all times speak to upperclassmen and to each other when passing them on the campus or in the town.

2. Freshmen shall not be downtown after nine P.M. except on Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights. This rule does not apply to Society meetings, church or prayer meetings, or to any other meeting of a duly organized and recognized student organization.

3. Freshmen must attend all athletic contests on the campus or have some valid excuse for not doing so.

4. Freshmen shall learn the College songs.

5. Freshmen shall purchase the college colors as provided by the Student Council. These colors are to be worn at all times while in Wake Forest through October 15 and at all athletic contests thereafter.

Hazing was abolished at Wake Forest five years ago and its continued absence depends in a large measure on the cooperation of all freshmen with the Student Government.

ABSENCES AND CUTS

Each student is allowed to "cut" or be absent from class without penalty as many times a semester as there are hours per week of that particular class. For example, English 1 is a three-hour course and every man is allowed three absences without penalty on that course per semester. On a two-hour course a student is allowed two cuts. All absences above the allowed number deduct credit from the course at the rate of one quality point for each excessive absence unless properly excused by the Faculty Committee on excuses.

Every man who is absent from a course because of illness, a death in his family, or for some other bona fide reason should make out a written statement of the hours missed and the reason for the absence and turn it over to the Dean immediately on his return to College.

Every student is warned not to drop courses without the explicit permission of the Dean and the Professor in charge of the course. To do otherwise means a call to the Dean's office.

COLLEGE ASSEMBLY

Assembly exercises, under the direction of the college chaplain, are held daily at 10:05 in the Social Science building. The attendance of freshmen is required; upperclassmen are urged to attend. The exercises are brief and are usually educational and devotional in character. Discussions by members of the faculty and visiting speakers, programs by student organizations, and musical features make the assemblies enjoyable and profitable.

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

Religious activities at Wake Forest are unified under the BAPTIST STUDENT UNION, which embraces the various religious organizations on the campus and links their work with that of the church. While Wake Forest is a denominational school, it should be made clear that religious activities are in no way sectarian and that members of all faiths are invited to join in all projects. In the religious organizations a non-denominational atmosphere is maintained and each student is invited to participate in all activities.

The BAPTIST STUDENT UNION attempts to meet the social as well as the religious needs of the students. In the "Ask Me" men newcomers will find friendly helpers and guides who are anxious to aid in any way. A short time after his arrival, each new man will receive a visit from a "Big Brother," who will try to help him in any possible way during the year. A reception for new men will be held during orientation week. At various times during the year social functions will be given by the organization, to which all students are invited.

While attendance upon any of the religious meetings is optional, all students will find a cordial welcome and are invited to attend all of them. The unit organizations of the BAPTIST STUDENT UNION are: The Sunday School, The Training Union, The Ministerial Conference, The Mission Study Group, and the Prayer Groups.

There are six Sunday School classes, which meet at 9:50 on Sunday morning: Dr. T. D. Kitchin, President of the College, Church Auditorium; Dr. D. B. Bryan, Dean, 102 Wait Hall; Dr. A. C. Reid, Professor of Philosophy, Band Room, Wait Hall; Prof. J. G. Carroll, of the Mathematics Department, Social Science Building; Prof. M. J. Hagood, of the English Department, Alumni Building; and Prof. I. B. Lake, of the Law School, Law Building.

The Training Unions, for student discussions and training in church membership, meet each Sunday evening at 6:45 at places to be announced. The Sunday morning service is conducted at 11:00 by the Pastor, and the evening service is at 7:30. Midweek prayer services are held on Wednesday evening at 7:30.

During the week morning watch services are conducted at 7:15 in Wait Hall, and evening vespers are held in the church auditorium at 6:30. The Mission Study Group meets on Sunday afternoon, and the Ministerial Conference meets on Tuesday evening in Wait Hall.

ARTICLES IN ADDITION TO, AND AMENDMENT OF, THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STUDENT BODY OF WAKE FOREST COLLEGE

Article I.—Election of Publications Officers

The Publications Board shall elect the officers of each of the publications; that is, the editor and the business manager, from a group of candidates for the offices as recommended by the retiring editor and business manager of the respective publications, the recommendations to be made on a basis of experience, scholastic record and merit.

THE LITERARY SOCIETIES

Organized 1835—only a few months after the college itself was founded—the Euzelian and Philomathesian literary societies have closely associated themselves with the history of the college during its first hundred years. Until recently membership in a society was compulsory and every student took an active interest in the work of the societies, this work having been defined as "giving training in parliamentary procedure, cultivating and directing the taste for reading, and forming correct habits for public speaking."

In recent years membership in the societies has been left up to the student. Every September the two organizations have "open house," so to speak, and each gives a series of smokers to which every freshman is cordially invited. Since the completion of a new administration building two groups have furnished two magnificent society halls on the third floor of the structure, the Eus having the South end and the Phis the North.

It is difficult to estimate the value of society training. Some of the most prominent of Wake Forest graduates, numbering governors, federal court judges, and United States senators, attribute much of their success to training received while members of one of the literary societies.

The groups meet twice weekly, on Monday and Thursday evenings at seven o'clock, and their doors are always open to men who wish to become affiliated with them. Each society offers four medals annually to the best speaker or orator in his class and medals to the first year men for improvement in public speaking.

THE FRATERNITY

A fraternity is, perhaps, the most closely knit body of students to be found on a college campus. The ideal organization of this type is one composed of students having the same tastes, interests, and aims. It involves continuous association between a small group of men throughout the time they spend on the campus. To insure your own satisfaction and that of those with whom you will be thrown, be certain before you accept an invitation to join a fraternity that you are willing to devote a certain amount of your time in Wake Forest College to furthering the interests of that group, and, above all, be certain that the boys are of your own temperament and tastes, or of a type you hope to become by association with them. Fraternity life is not all play, as the magazines would have you believe, but demands the unflagging interest and effort of its members in order to hold its position on the campus. You will get from it only what you are willing to put in. Think seriously of what you are willing to do for the organization of your choice as well as what it can do for you.

On behalf of the fraternities on the campus of this College, welcome. We have an old and honored school composed of the highest type of students. Our fraternities, though containing only a small minority of the student body, hold many outstanding men. We depend upon you incoming students, who accept the invitation to pledge, to uphold the standards set by those who have gone before, and to advance them in every manner you may conceive. Strive to make yourself an asset to the organization with which you choose to associate.

THE PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL

The Pan-Hellenic Council is composed of one member from each social and professional fraternity. The duties of the Council are to make and enforce rules governing the represented fraternities.

Fraternity Rushing Rules

Below are the fraternity rushing rules by which each fraternity must abide during its rushing period.

1. Rushing season shall start on the day of Frosh registration and extend through a period of four weeks.

2. Freshmen can not stay in fraternity houses until they are pledged, unless they have a brother who is a member of that fraternity.

3. Freshmen can not stay in a fraternity house later than nine o'clock, except on Saturday nights and on nights of smokers.

4. Each fraternity shall be allowed one smoker during the period of rushing.

5. A notice must be filed with the secretary as to the date of the smoker.

6. There shall be no more than two smokers on the same night.

7. No fraternity shall be permitted to give a dance during the four weeks of rushing.

8, Silence period shall cover the last 24 hours of rushing.

Any fraternity found guilty of violating any of the above rules shall be punished at the discretion of the Council.

THE LIBRARY

The first step in learning to use the Library is to learn the rules and privileges allowed to the readers. Each student can help the Library by observing these rules which are made for the general good.

The unwritten rule in all libraries is to "speak softly, and push back chairs quietly." Discourage conversation by talking only when necessary.

Books for parallel reading, called "reserve books" are kept on shelves behind the circulation desk. When requesting these books at the desk, give the author, title, and the course for which it is reserved. Reserved books are allowed out only during the hours the Library is closed, and are subject to a fine of ten cents an hour or fraction thereof for each overdue book.

Most books, not on reserve or in special demand, are allowed out for two weeks and may be renewed. These books are subject to an overdue fine of five cents a day for each book.

The Library is open on week days from 8:10 to 12:00 in the morning, 1:30 to 5:00 in the afternoon, and 7:00 to 10:30 in the evening. On Sundays it is open from 1:00 to 3:00. No books are allowed to be removed from the shelves on this day.

Students are urged to ask questions freely of the librarian and assistants, whose earnest desire is to make accessible to each student the great treasure of information contained in the Library.

SELF-HELP

More than half the Student Body do outside work to defray a part of their expenses. These jobs take the form of waiting on tables, NYA jobs, assistant-ships for upper-classmen, work on the golf course and on the tennis courts, employment in private homes as chauffeurs, gardeners, and the like, and salesmen for clothes, confections, and what-have-you.

Watch the bulletin board to learn when applicants should report for the NYA jobs.

No jobs are handed out on silver platters. The man who lands the job available does so only by ingenuity and aggressiveness. The Dean will be glad to talk to men who are in search of work and direct them as to where jobs may be found.
